

Discover the heroes beyond traditional learning. It's an unforgettable experience you can't afford to miss!

As educators, it is important that we bring a global perspective into our classrooms, whether it is face to face, online, or as a virtual school. To succeed, our students need to join and collaborate with these communities, learning to utilize global resources.

The 2016 TxDLA (Texas Distance Learning Association) Conference is a three day conference that draws together a diverse group of over 400 professionals from K-12 and higher ed, government, nonprofit and corporate organizations to help them address common trends and issues in:
